❖ A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Feast of the Ascension: Thank you St. Paul!

We can thank St. Paul for giving us so many images of the work of salvation. For example, he describes there being one great act of giving birth (Romans 8:22). We have been reading St. John's Gospel during the week and Jesus has said clearly to the apostles that it is to our advantage that the Advocate (the Holy Spirit) come.

How can this be? How can knowing Christ by faith be "better" than being with Him on earth? We can begin with the Gospel. The togetherness of the Father and the Son is that infinitely "right" relationship that speaks of the perfection of creation. It begins there and the Holy Spirit, the breath of God, impels creation into the great "sigh" of giving birth. Giving birth for us is not easy. It is fraught. Even with modern medicine we tread carefully and try to be prepared.

Jesus' return to the Father ushers in the next step on the way to the completion of His saving work. With the coming of the Holy Spirit, we begin living this new creation, joined to Christ. Shot through all of St. Paul's writing is the fact that we no longer live simply in this world (in the flesh) but now live "in Christ." The fact that we need to slow down and listen with the heart to become aware and capable of acting on this truth should prod us to desire the grace to act on this reality in everything. St. Paul, again, tells us that we can overcome our weakness by relying on Christ and not ourselves, by allowing that God can and does accomplish what we do not perceive. As much as we may be weighed down by our sins and look sometimes too much at our faults, we can also miss the power of the graces that God showers on us, not for our own good but for the good of others. That's when we are involved in that great act of giving birth and the Kingdom is really "budding forth" as experienced both in the Eucharist and in our lives nourished by Christ.

In his own story, St. Paul gives us very realistic images of the Christian life. Life goes anything but smoothly for him and while he is confident in his faith, he is by no means someone simply caught up in ecstasy. He meets the communities in which he proclaims and nurtures the faith very realistically meeting the downs with as much vitality as the ups.

Through the intercession of St. Paul may the coming Solemnity of Pentecost strengthen and encourage us to generously give of ourselves for the completion of the work of salvation.

In Christ,

Fr. Bob

❖ EVENTS

Doors Open Toronto: May 28 & 29, 2022

St. Paul's Basilica will be participating in this year's Doors Open event!

The Basilica will be open to the public this weekend; Saturday, May 28th from 10 am to 1 pm and Sunday, May 29th from 12 pm to 5 pm.

Curious about the beautiful artwork, the tragedy of the Irish or the building's history? Why is St. Paul's a Basilica and how can you know that you are in a building of importance? Explore St. Paul Basilica with a guided tour of the magnificent interior including the four major paintings in the sanctuary and the side apses which were finished in 1893. Access an up-close view of the all-wood organ which was installed in 1898 by R.S. Williams & Son, Toronto, and is the only one of its kind in North America. Explore the stained-glass windows that were installed a year later as well as the Stations of the Cross which were installed in 1901. View the scenes of the life of St. Paul which were painted on canvas in 1911. The angels behind the altar were created with the same technique in the 1920s. Take a walk around the church grounds starting with the campanile (bell tower), erected in 1905 which contains the bell from the original church. The bronze Pieta on the front lawn was installed in 1933 as a memorial to Bishop Power and parishioners who died during the typhus epidemic in 1847.

Please contact the parish office if you are interested in volunteering for this event. Other nearby locations also participating are: Little Trinity Church, Enoch Turner Schoolhouse, Daniels Spectrum, Toronto's First Post Office, St. Lawrence Hall, The Market Gallery and many more.
