❖ A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

A Holy and Happy Christmas!

Many of you will either be receiving or going to family and friends this weekend and in the coming days. It is a happy duty and reminds us of the importance of the bonds that sustain us in life. For some of us, our family is far away and while we might see them on our phones or computer screens the fact that we are away from each other does not escape us. Some of us are alone and we know that for anyone experiencing challenges this can be a difficult time.

The Feast of Christmas is here to remind us that God is not far away and not afraid to be with us. God loves us. God respects us. God nourishes and gives us life. Hopefully, we will all have the chance also to help one another to know this over the course of the Christmas season.

I am very fortunate that I have memories of Christmas as a kind of miracle that showed me new possibilities in my life. For children, these are the blessings of toys, allowing us to be creative and interactive, engaging the building blocks of life. I hope that each of us takes the chance to engage in a little play at this time, to open our hearts and minds to new possibilities and to help us to be creative and mutually nourishing. As you go to bed tonight, consider reflecting on the miracles and the people who have been the agents of God's miracles in your life. These blessings are alive in you and come from the heart of Christ.

Sitting in the pew here at St. Paul's you can call to mind people who have sat in your seat since the church was built in 1889. Jesus has come to be with them as much as He has come to be with you. I often think that as I pray for others, many are also praying for me. I've always felt that my parents are praying for me too, that we may rejoice in God's gifts together forever. Jesus comes to us innocently and full of divine love. He knows what we need before we ever ask. Quietly, in this pew today, you can utter in your soul, "Come Lord Jesus", "Maranatha, come!". God IS with us!

Wishing the blessings of the newborn Saviour upon all of us!

In Christ,

Fr. Bob
